POPULAR MONTHLY OF LITERATURE. With the issue for January, 1886, important changes will be made in the literary character and typograph . cal appearance of Lippincott's Magazine, which, while more than maintaining the former standards of excelence, will, it is expected, materially increase its popularity and widen its sphere of usefulness. The distinctve features of Lippincott's for the coming year will be

It will be a live periodical, interesting itself in all the current topics of the day, literary, artistic, political and social, and enlisting in their discussion the iblest pens in England and America. A fair hearing will be accorded to all sides of a controversy, though the magazine will strictly preserve its own neutrality It will be especially strong in fiction. A new novel, entitled "Hope," by W. E. Norris, author of "Matrimony," "No New Thing," etc., who is perhaps the cleverest of the rising authors of England, will run brough the year, accompanied by a brilliant serial, lealing with the literary and dramatic life of New York City, from the pen of a writer who prefers to

The report shows the receipts of the year to be $96,000, and the profits to be $.75 per annum on all the dues paid in on stock. This splendid showing has been achieved in the short time of four years, while in this and other cities it usually takes at least double that time to reach a like percentage of profit. Five per cent per annum is paid for shares withdrawn before maturity. The Fifth Series is now open for subscriptions at $1 per share. Our loans to members average $1,050 for a payment of $14 per month.

DOESN'T APPLY TO THIS TUCKER.—A story is going the rounds of the press to the effect that years ago, when Hon. Randolph Tucker, of Vir. ginia, denied a published report of his death, Gen. Bob. Toombs, of Georgia, remarked that Tucker was "such a liar" he did not know whether to credit his denial or not. A friend of Congressman Tucker says, in justice to the must have been applied to another Tucker, and not to Virginia's present distinguished Repre sentative of that name. He added that Hon. Randolph Tucker is known as a man not at all given to exaggeration; that he is truthful and honorable, and among his friends his "word is his bond."

DEPARTURE OF THE PRESIDENT.-The President left Washington at 7:15 this morning for Buffalo to vote in the state election. He will not go by way of New York city. He will reach Buffalo late to-night, and will probably be the guest of his sister, Mrs. Hoyt. He will return on Tuesday evening, reaching Washington on Wednesday. FACTS SHOWN BY THE TREASURY ACCOUNTS. The accounts of the Treasury show that the payment of the gold and silver certificates does not decrease the currency, as the silver and gold which represent these certificates is in the Treasury to be paid out if needed. With money at two per cent per annum, as it now is, this would seem hardly necessary. The amount of standard silver dollars in circulation on June 30th was $38,500,000. The amount outstanding to-day, in round numbers, is $48,500,000, an increase of $10,000.000. The maximum amount of fractional silver in the Treasury June 1st was in round numbers $31,700,000. of redemption, until the present day. On June 1st, 1879, the fractional coin in the Treasury was $6,800,000, from which point it had steadily increased, year by year, until it reached the figures above given, namely, $31,700,000. Mr. Calhoun's Work. THE NEW SYSTEM OF NAVAL ACCOUNTS. The new system of accounts for the Navy department will be turned over to the department authorities soon by Mr. Calhoun, who devised the system, and under whose supervision the account books of the department have been kept thus far during the present administra-tion. The new system has been found to equal the expectations of its promoters, and now it is thought that the accounts of the department can be kept without difficulty by the depart-ment officials according to the improved meth-ods. Mr. Calhoun has been at work in a dual capacity—introducing a new system of ac-counts, and investigating the different bureaus of the department. In the latter work he has been ably assisted by Mr. Fletcher. The investigations have not yet been completed, and now that one branch of the work is off Mr. Calhoun's hands they will be pushed vigorously. It has not yet been decided how much longer Mr. Calhoun will be pushed by the calhoun be pushed by the calhoun by the calhoung by the cal houn will remain on duty at the Navy depart-ment, or whether he will still conduct the bureau investigations in person or not.

District Government Affairs. THE COMMISSIONERS SUSTAIN THE POLICE. The District Commissioners upon receiving the papers Saturday relating to the complaint made by Mr. Charles S. Hill against Police Lieutenant Guy and several of his officers, ad-dressed a letter to Mr. Hill. After summing up dressed a letter to Mr. Hill. After summing up the facts of the case as reported to them, the Commissioners said: "If this is substantially a correct statement of facts there is no just ground of complaint against the police officers, for it is not their function to decide as to rights of property between citizens in such case, but only to maintain the peace. If the report is incorrect you will please point out the error."

Mr. John Miller, 4½ street and Maryland avenue, asks the Commissioners to erect gas lamps on South Capitol street, between I and K streets southeast. He offers to pay the cost of the lamps and the erection thereof if the Commissioners will maintain them.

The Commissioners have reappointed Mr. Francis H. Myers as an additional private of the Metropolitan police for three years, for duty on 7th street, from B to G southwest, without compensation therefor from the District of Columbia.

CHANGES IN THE OFFICES.

An Appointment by the President, Etc. Final Meeting of the Old Commission-Before the President's departure for New York this morning he appointed Owen T. Rouse, of Missouri, to be U. S. district attorney for Arizona. The Secretary of the Treasury has made the following appointments in the lighthouse service: Howard Stiles, to be first assistant keeper at Ship John Shoal, N. J.; W. H. Perry, at Christiana, Del.; Thomas Bills, to be keeper at Barnegat, N. J.; W. A. Bethel, to be keeper at Pensacola, Fla.

THANKSGIVING DAY. The President's Proclamation.

The President to-day issued the following proclamation BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION. The American People have always abundant cause to be thankful to Almighty God, whose watchful care and guiding hand have been manifested in every stage of their national darkness and or danger. It is fitting and proper that a nation thus favored, should on one day in every year, for that purpose especially appointed, publicly acknowledge the goodness of God, and return thanks to Him for all His gracious gifts. Therefore I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the Twenty-Sixth day of November instant, as a day of public Thanksgiving and prayer, and do invoke the observance of the same by all the people of On that day let all secular business be suspended. And let the people assemble in their usual places of worship, and with prayer and songs of praise, devoutly testify their gratitude to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for all that He has done for us in the year that has passed, for our preservation as a united nation and for our deliverance from the shock and danger of political convulsion; for the blessings of peace and for our safety and quiet while wars and rumors of wars have agitated and afflicted other nations of the earth; for our security against the scourge of pestilence, which in other lands has claimed its dead by thousands and filled the streets with mourners; for plenteous crops which reward the labor of the usbandman and increase our nation's wealth: and for the contentment throughout our borders which follows in the train of prosperity and abundance. And let there also be on the day thus set and not Enough to Eat. First-class Private John J. O'Connor, of the signal corps, has placed in the hands of J. Ambler Smith, as his attorney, a complaint of ill-treatment, in order that the matter may be brought to the attention of the proper authorities. Private O'Connor stated to a Star reporter that he enlisted and went through the school at Fort Myer two years ago, and was then sent as meteorological observer and telegraph operator at Fort Assinibolne. McElroy, to duty in the draughting-room of the bureau of steam engiof 98 per cent of predictions verified, the high-est record, he claimed, made in the service during that time. O'Connor says his health broke down from overwork, and, in June last, he was called into Fort Myer for "medical treatment. Since the arrival at the fort, he says, he has had to do degrading and laborious work from 6:30 a. m. until 5:30 p. m. every day, contrary to army regulations. He had asked for a court of commissioned officers to investigate his greviance, and it had been denied. He has no time, he says, for study, rest, or re-creation, and is treated as a slave or convict, being denied the use of a table to write upon, or a chair to sit upon. He is obliged, he said, to work out under rain, and has no fire or artificial heat in his room to prevent his con-tracting rheumatism. The food served in the being absent without leave. After that he was out examination, who do the manual work about the fort. For the last seven weeks, O'Connor told THE STAR reporter he has had to work ten hours a day in the vegetable gardens and cleaning up, sawing wood, or engaged in some other laborious occupation, although he enlisted as a meteorological observer. He said he had applied for his discharge, and been refused. He said while the rations served might be sufficient for a man at a military post who had nothing to do, it was not sufficient for a man who had to work as a laborer. He eked out his rations by paying $9 a month out of his pay of $17 a month to a person in the neighborhood who supplied him with food. The merchants make subscriptions and hire some ragged, worthless fellows to begin drilling at night in out-of-theway places, and to pretend to be plotting in secresy. The news is flashed over the wires that a formidable filibustering expedition is being prepared, and an appeal for aid to crush it is made. The vessels of the North Atlantic squadron are sept down for that purpose, and the whole matter blows over and amounts to nothing. The end in view has been gained though. The vessels remain in port for some-time, and a hundred thousand dollars or more have been expended by the officers in making purchases and in supplying the ships. The fill-busters were all imaginary. Now, mark what I say. These expeditions are never gotten up at a time when assistance cannot be sent from the navy. The statistics in the matter will bear me out in this. I am firmly convinced that every out in this. I am firmly convinced that every one of these expeditions are originated by the resident merchants for their own benefit."

"This theory is confirmed," continued the officer, "by the fact that all these filibustering expeditions could be put a stop to by the Treasury Department. The collector at the port has all the power necessary, and the revenue marine vessels could do much better service than the naval vessels. But they want the naval vessels, and they generally manage to get them yessels, and they generally manage to get them uselessly sent down."

Clean bills of health can therefore still be given. "It is worth nothing," he continues, "that of twenty-seven deaths from cholera, which are said to have occurred in one direction within a quarter of a mile of this consulate, on the 12th, 13th and 14th instants the whole twenty-seven were either men or boys, all of whom had been taking part in idolatrous processions, which had paraded the streets in the night and rain for the purpose of warding off disease. It is not yet definitely known when he will be superseded. At the closing meeting Saturday afternoon the commission spread upon its minutes a resolution "that the commissioners wish to express their high appreciation of the earnest, honest, and efficient service rendered by all those serving as subordinate to them, and also to the members of the different boards of examiners, whose work has been as onerous to themselves as it has been helpful to the commission and advantageous to the public service."
The constitution of the new board of commis sioners still remains a matter of speculation The name of Controller Chapin, of New York, it is stated, has been presented to the President for one of the places on the commission. It has been assumed by some of Mr. Chapin's friends that the President is awaiting the result of the New York election before making his appoint ments, and in the event of Mr. Chapin's failure of re-election to the office he now holds he will offer one of the appointments to him.

Mr. Eaton did not go to the rooms of the con mission this morning. A STAR reporter saw him at his rooms at Wormley's. He said he was not to hold over and was no longer a com-missioner. He has perfect confidence, he says, in the President's determination and ability to enforce the law, and thinks things will go on all right. He will remain in Washington durservice he can to the new commission.

Judge Thoman called at the White House this morning. A STAR reporter met him as he came down the walk. He said simply: "I am out. I shall be here for a week, and then am going away for a while.' The President expects to appoint successors to Messrs. Eaton and Thoman immediately upon his return from New York.

The Eve of the Ballot-Gen. Lee's Election About Conceded-Estimates of Both Parties-Majorities by Congressional Districts-tien. Wickham's Esti-Etc.

Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 2 .- On the eve of battle both parties to the contest in Virginia are doubtful and apprehensive. Perhaps never before in this state were political prophets so much at sea, or fixed conditions of a political fight so anxiously and vainly sought for. As to the governorship, it is simply fair to say that the enthusiastic democrats claim Gen. Lee's election with more confidence than do the enthusiastic republicans Mr. Wise's election. Leaving out ing the winter and will be ready to render any of the calculation the elements of enthusiasm, it is plain that the democrats are sanguine of Lee's election, and the republicans are strongly hopeful of Wise's election. This alignment counts merely the intelligent and calculating elements on both sides and dismisses the gush and boastfulness that belong to all political struggles at the culminating point of election day as having no real bearing upon the result. Mr. Wise is cheerful and hopeful as to his prospects, but indulges in little prophesy. His arduous and protracted canvass closes to-day at Hampton, on the lower penin-BURYING SOLDIERS.

Among the annoying surprises to democrats at the close of the struggle are rumors of democratic losses in Fauquier and Loudon, Culpeper and generally through the eighth congressional (Barbour's) district. Equally annoying to republicans are rumors of diminished negro majorities in the counties of the Norfolk and Petersburg districts. Hopeful republican estimates claim 7,000 majority for Wise in the Petersburg district, and 5,000 in the Norfolk district, with a small ma jority in the southwest, a small majority in the first congressional district, embracing the tidewater counties on the Chesapeake bay and along the York, Potomac and Rappahanhundred votes. Mr. Wise believes that he will carry four congressional districts, with aggregate majorities of something like 14,000, these districts being the first, second, fourth and ninth districts, and that he will about tie the tenth district. Democrats claim sweeping majorities throughout all of middle Virginia, and a greatly reduced negro vote south of James river, and their calculations as to both regions are well founded. The Richmond district will give Gen. Lee 2,500 majority, accordding to the safest democratic judges. If democratic estimates are sustained by the countles of middle Virginia, Lee will be elected by a majority not large, but safe, and if republican estimates are borne out as to the negro vote, Mr. Wise will be elected. Chairman Barbour, of the democratic state committee, believes the legislature safe for his party by a majority of twenty on joint ballot. Gen. Mahone claims fifty-seven republican members of the one hundred members of the lower house of the legislature. The situation from the purview of Richmond may be correctly stated to be a belief in Lee's election, with a very close legislature, and with much allowance for unknown quantities and influences not now visible which may affect both the governorship and the legislature. FUNERAL OF GEN. McCLELLAN. ST. The Cork Cattle Bealers SHIP COMPANY IN SPITE OF DIFFICULTIE

Cone, Nov. 2.—The English railway companies decline to grant through rates to the cattle dealers on the cattle shipped by steamers charactered by the latter unless they register them selves as common carriers. If the dealers accepted the proposition it would render then liable under the laws relating to common carriers if they refused to carry other freight when offered, a fact which might be taken advantage of by the landlords to break up their scheme. The cattle dealers, however, have determined to work independently.
